

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Exhibit will run through March 26th

Williamsburg, Virginia (February 19, 2010) – This Century Art Gallery announces their newest exhibitions. Nancy Newhard and Susan & Ronald Salomon’s artwork will be on display through March 26th.

Newhard will be showcasing her watercolor painting. She is the Executive Director/Curator of Alleghany Highlands Arts and Crafts Center in Clifton Forge, VA.

Newhard began painting with watercolor and oil. Later she switched to acrylics, and then found that the newer watermedia incorporated what she liked best from both media – the texture and transparency.

In addition, Susan & Ronald Salomon are exhibiting as craft artists. Initially, Susan and Ronald worked separately; Susan concentrating on hand knit sweaters and Ronald on basketry and rugs. Later Susan began creating hats and baby sweaters and Ronald began creating complementary scarves and shawls.

The Upstairs Gallery features themed work by TCAG Member Artists “Lights & Shadows”. The Kiwanis Children’s Gallery will feature artwork from Williamsburg Christian Academy.

This Century Art Gallery is free and open to the public Tuesday through Sunday 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and closed on Mondays. It is located at 219 North Boundary St. Williamsburg. Artwork is for sale and a portion of sales benefit This Century Art Gallery. For more information or to find out about art classes call (757) 229-4949.
