Guernsey Tingle Architects Staff Announcement

Guernsey Tingle Architects is pleased to announce that Andrew McKinley has joined the firm as designer/ technician.

Mr. McKinley is a 2007 graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University with a Bachelor of Architecture and a minor in Industrial Design. Mr. McKinley has studied construction practices and traveled Europe exploring a wide variety of cultures and architectural styles. He achieved Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) accreditation in June of 2008. Mr. McKinley is a native of Richmond, VA and currently resides in Newport News.

At Guernsey Tingle Architects, Andrew is working on the Virginia Beach Animal Care and Adoption Center and the new Williamsburg Pottery. He will be participating in the design and production for the firm's municipal, commercial and private clients.

Now in its third decade, Guernsey Tingle Architects of Williamsburg has become one of the premiere architectural firms in eastern Virginia. The firm's projects are located from the Richmond area throughout the Peninsula and into the Carolinas. Their inclusive philosophy of working with their various project partners has led to high-quality innovative buildings and communities.
