15 Top Spots for April (image 7 of 15)

The month is bursting with traditional events such as the Boston Marathon, Seville's April Fair and Earth Day, but you can also travel off the beaten path. Consider going to see a new Titanic museum, Motorcycle Week in Mazatlan or a Mark Twain centennial séance.

April Top Spots: Garden Week, Virginia

Historic Garden Week in Virginia will be held April 17-25, when more than 250 of Virginia's most beautiful private homes, gardens and historic landmarks will be open to the public. A Williamsburg tour on April 20 will showcase houses and gardens that are more than two centuries old. The James River Plantations, which date back to the earliest days of Virginia colonization, will be open April 22-24. Other garden week tours will take place in Northern Virginia, the Shenandoah Valley and the Chesapeake Bay area.
