Job Fair Offers Opportunities for Employment

Williamsburg, VA — If you're in the market for a job or a new career, you won't want to miss the 23rd Annual Williamsburg Area Job Fair. The event will be held Wednesday, February 18, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Woodlands Conference Center, 119 Visitor Center Drive in Williamsburg.

This annual event offers job applicants the opportunity to submit applications, meet, and interview with representatives from many area businesses and organizations. Local employers are expected to offer a variety of full-time, part-time, and seasonal job opportunities in such occupational areas as hotel and restaurant services, management, administrative support staff, accounting, marketing, retail sales, housekeeping, nursing and education. A list of participating employers will be posted on the Alliance Web site, www.williamsburgcc.com, beginning on February 2.

All area employers seeking workers are invited to participate, and a limited number of exhibit spaces are still available. A $350 registration fee includes a reserved exhibit space, five hours of prime recruiting time and the opportunity to receive job applications from hundreds of potential employees. Companies interested in participating can call the Alliance at 229-6511.

The 2009 Job Fair is sponsored by the Greater Williamsburg Chamber & Tourism Alliance, the Virginia Employment Commission, the Virginia Department of Rehabilitative Services, James City County Social Services and Williamsburg Social Services.
